REIMAGINE THE FUTURE OF THE CHURCH!

It was a great week at the 2022 General Conference Sessions in Findlay Ohio. The theme for the conference was "REIMAGINE"! REIMAGINE how we carry out the work that God has called us to do in making disciples of Jesus Christ. None of us could have anticipated all the life and ministry challenges and disruptions we experienced the past three years, yet alone what lies in wait of us in the years to come.

The guest speaker for this year's conference was Brad Brisco, the Director of Bivocational Church Planting for the North American Missions, and, he is author of several books, one of which is "ReThink: 9 Paradigm Shifts for Activating the Church".

Brad shared thoughts from his ReThink book on how the church of today needs to be looking at paradigm shifts on how we "do church" to reach the culture of today. A lot of information was shared about the many things in our churches that create cultural barriers . . . barriers that end up inhibiting people from coming to church.

Another thing we are seeing when people do attend church, they are looking for a place that is like "a vendor of religious goods and services." So what does that mean?

It means many Churchgoers expect the church to provide a wide range of religious services that suits their needs such as:

- styles of worship music,
- preaching messages that makes them feel good,
- to have great children and teen programs,
- small groups, parenting seminars, and many other things they are looking for.

What Brad was saying and what can be found in his book is that "we as the church must 'ReThink' what we understand to be the ministry and work of the church"?

Along that same line, a devotional I read this week shared how many churches are being faced with people who are consumers in the church instead of committed church members. Sadly, many are living the life of the "unholy trinity" of "me, myself, and I".

So, how are you doing in your commitment to the church and to the Lord? Here are eleven signs that you are becoming a church consumer instead of being a committed church member. You know you are becoming a church consumer when:

- Your worship attendance drops.
- You replace in-person worship attendance with on-line attendance (there are times when people are unable to attend in-person).
- Your attendance in a small group is declining, or you stop attending completely.
- You find yourself getting more frustrated at things in the church and you are more critical.
- Your financial giving and/or the giving of your time declines or stops.
- You critique sermons instead of listening prayerfully.
- You see church as a place to meet your needs instead of you meeting the needs of others.
- You get frustrated at what other church members aren't doing.
- You don't pray for your church regularly.
- You don't share the gospel.

Any of these things sounding familiar in your life??? The ministry of the church is changing and in the near future, we will be looking at what we need to be doing as a church to be true to the Word of God, and at the same time helping people to cross the barriers to be a part of our church family . . . to be a part of God's Church.

Stay tuned for more to come!
Pastor Wayne

Women's Ministry Welcome You!

The Women's Ministry is seeking participants. As church life continues to recover here at The Connection Place, more women are needed to grow the services that the Women's Ministry is responsible for, and could be providing to our church family. Women's Ministry might be the vessel that could put your new ideas to work in bringing our church and community together.

If you want to connect with other women, move beyond Sunday services, and serve your church and community in the name of Christ, please join us in CGWM. Our first meeting to plan the coming year will be held Tuesday, August 16th at 6:30 p.m. We meet in the Sunday School classrooms to the right of the sanctuary.

NOTE: PMI is no longer collecting used printer ink cartridges. The little extra money they have generated has helped us, but the cartridge requirements to get the reimbursements have become more stricter, and the system is less user friendly. We very much appreciate your participation in the past. Thank you!

The Shoebbox Supply House in Shippensburg will be open on the following dates in August and September from 9am -12 each day:

August 4, 13, 18, 27
September 1, 10, 12, 15, 19, 24,
26 & 29.

Child Evangelism Fellowship is offering a Good News Day Camp on August 8-12.

- Each camp runs from 9:30-3pm each day

1. Praise God for sending people who understand you when you hurt, who are there to support and teach you. There are so many others out there who need help desperately to change their lives. Pray for them, too.
2. Pray for those who are dealing with anxiety, panic, anger or frustration issues, that God's peace will blanket over them and they will be able to hand it all over to God once and for all.
3. Praise God that He still performs miracles, just as He did all through history. He still takes care of us in ways we have no comprehension of.
4. Pray for Pastor Wayne, Elaine and their family, for continued blessings in all areas of their lives. Likewise, pray for all the other pastors in our church and their families for blessings as they serve.
5. Think of one or more of your favorite hymns or praise songs and just sing to the Lord. He'll love hearing praise from you and won't care if you sing off key. He'll just be happy to hear from you.
6. Pray for all the men and boys of our church, for a closeness and love for Jesus that surpasses all understanding.
7. Praise the Lord for using His imagination and talents to make so many millions of beings and have each one be different in some way. May we all return those gifts in a way that bring Him glory.
8. Pray for council members and all others concerned with the meetings tonight. May God please make all of His intentions clear as to what the best decisions will be to attract others to Jesus while maintaining the present ministries.
9. Pray that Child Evangelism will be successful in bringing children to know Jesus as their Savior, and have a good attendance.
10. Praise God for your family and friends. Pray for all areas of their life, especially their salvation.
11. Praise God for the ministry of Tommy and Joanna Kopp and their boys. Things may have changed from what they thought their plans would look like, but God has a sure plan for what will be most effective. Praise God for their willingness to be flexible.
12. Pray for the women and girls of our church, that each one will grow deeper in an unshakeable love for Jesus.
13. Pray for all those participating in the Ride for a Purpose, that they will all have a wonderful and safe time as well as raising a lot of money for a very worthy cause.
14. Praise God if you have good clean water to drink. We take it so for granted, especially on these hot days. Many people do not have that blessing so abundantly. Many have to walk miles to get what they can. Some places, the water is drying up so there may not always be what we have come to expect. Be grateful now.
15. Pray for the trustees and others who do "behind the scenes work" for wisdom and ability to perform their mission for the Lord. Also, for those who are taking care of the work around the church, especially when it is so hot.
16. Praise God for the Women's ministries and those involved. They do a lot of missions behind the scenes, so many people don't really know what is involved or how their activities touch so many lives. There is a meeting schedule for tonight. It might be a good time to check it out at 6:30 p.m.
17. Pray for those having a hard time letting go of loved ones who have left them. Pray they will get God's peace washing over them to take the pain away.
18. Pray for our troops and other First Responders and their families wherever they may be. Pray for their safety and emotional well being, too.
19. Praise God that we can know and enjoy many other believers from other churches or areas, getting a head start now on knowing them in Heaven.
20. Pray for those who have received a terminal diagnosis (and their families). If there will be a miracle - GREAT! But pray they will find Christ and know there is a better future and hope ahead.
21. Today is Blessing of the Backpacks Sunday. We need to be praying for the children of our church as well as all other students,, that they will be blessed to be able to do their best to learn as much as possible. But also that they will ALL be kept safe from evil doers. Pray that children can just be children, not indoctrinated with evil or scared for their safety.
22. Praise God that He has a plan for your life, that He had in mind long before you were conceived. YOU are no accident!
23. Pray that the media will become more unbiased in their reporting and portrayal of Christians, as a whole. Just for fairness and honesty about what we believe, not turning others from Him. Pray that just the facts will be reported, not the anchors expounding their opinions.
24. Pray that the Holy Spirit will ignite people's hearts to follow God closely, causing a revival across the land and around the world. It is really the only hope for our future.
25. Pray for those dealing with allergies and severe breathing problems. High heat and humidity can make it hard to get enough air.
26. Pray for those pressured to join a gang or commit violence. Pray God will intervene and send someone to show them a better way. Pray for the ones who had joined and desperately want out, that there will be help for them to leave safely.
27. Thank God for His awesomeness. When we think of His power, we can't even begin to comprehend all He can do!
28. Pray for those Senior members of our church that they will be safe, enjoying major spiritual growth and fun. There is so much we can learn from them!
29. Praise God for all the agencies in our community who are trying to make the world a better place. Helping those who are in need, etc. It may not feel like it now, but in a few months there will be need for warm clothes for those who can't afford them. If you see some items that you can easily afford, maybe you could pick one or two up in anticipation of being the answer to someone's prayers.
30. Pray for safety for farmers and other operators of big machinery and those around them. Harvest time will be coming and sometimes when people get in a hurry accidents happen.
31. Pray that the economy will soon turn around, that jobs will be filled by people who want to work and make their lives better. And that people will not have to struggle so much to make ends meet.

I would like to take this opportunity to "Thank you one and all" for all the prayers, phone calls, visits, cards, flowers, food and all the acts of kindness during my recent hospital stay and since my return home. We have been overwhelmed and very humbled by all of your kindness!! Every one of your prayers have been answered and we are praising God for all of His goodness!!
In Christ's Love, Phyllis Hershey

I would like to thank my church family for all their prayers, visits, phone calls, the beautiful cards, and food. Also the ladies that came in and helped me shower and tidy up for me as well as the rides to the food store and doctors. I can't tell you how much this meant to me!!
God Bless, Thelma Isaac

Our sympathy is extended to Pastor Heidi Guyer's family whose Aunt Dona Helm went home to be with the Lord on Tuesday, July 12th. Please keep the family in your prayers during this time.

Congratulations to Pastor Shawn Peale and Bethany Giles for their special wedding day on Saturday, July 23rd. May God bless them in their new life together and praying for safety in their honeymoon travels!

A Message from Niki Miller

Shippensburg Center Director

God often leads us in ways we don't quite expect. I take great comfort in knowing His ways are higher and greater than mine. I am absolutely excited and humbled to be the Center Director of the Shippensburg Center. This was not a position I at first felt qualified to possess. But with a gentle reminder that God often calls the unqualified, I am following His lead. PMI has held a very special place in my heart for many years. The support I see this ministry give to our communities doesn't just stop with a positive pregnancy test. The impact of grace, love and truth we get to pour out to the lost and confused clients who walk through our doors is a testament to the goodness of God. I am eager to fulfill the calling God has for me here.

Please be in prayer for me as I am training, that I retain all that I am being taught. That God gives me wisdom and insight on how to reach out to the Shippensburg community and especially the Shippensburg University students and staff. Also pray for the clients who walk through our doors, that they have a heart softened to hear the truth of their Lord and Savior.
