Follow – Living WITH Jesus!

November 6, 2022

Message: Investing In The Kingdom

Scriptures: 2 Corinthians 9:6-8

Sermon Notes:

- As you reflect on the past 35 days of the Follow devotions, what have you heard God speaking into your life?
- Last Sunday, Pastor Kathryn shared that you don't have to be an Ordained Pastor for God to use you to share the Gospel with others. Is there a specific way you can share Jesus with someone at your workplace, your school, your church, in your neighborhood, etc.? Is there a person God has been laying on your heart that you should speak to about Jesus?

Today our scripture passage in 2 Corinthians 9:6-8, the Apostle Paul is encouraging you to “sow” (give) generously. This is not just talking about finances, it includes giving of your time, your talents, and really, all areas of your life. When you give generously, you will receive a generously! What can you generously give from your heart that could help others come to know Jesus as their Savior?

Be sure to read the Day 42 devotion this week. As you read the questions in the devotion and the scripture from Romans 12, be asking yourself, “Am I all in for Jesus and FOLLOWING him?” If you can't answer that question with an affirmative “YES”, then be praying about, “How can I become all in for Jesus, and FOLLOW him where he wants me to go?”

If you need help to know more about how you can be a better FOLLOWER of Jesus, please contact Pastor Wayne this week at 717-448-6994.
