A MINISTRY SABBATICAL

In May, 2020, I had scheduled and was approved to take a ministry sabbatical, but like many other things, Covid had a way of changing plans!!! My sabbatical is now planned for this year.

Some may wonder what a ministry sabbatical is??? It is a period of time when ministry leaders take a pause from their full time ministry for the purpose of rest and renewal, both personally and professionally, towards continued excellence in ministry. This holds true for Elaine and me as the sabbatical is a time from the daily physical, emotional, spiritual responsibilities of being a pastor and spouse.

Sabbaticals are recommended by our Conference leadership and granted to pastors after 10 years or more of full time ministry. The sabbatical in ministry aids in preventing burnout and helps stimulate renewed creativity for future ministry.

For a sabbatical to be most effective, it requires a complete time away from the ministry at Newville for a short period of time, but we know it will have long-term benefits for all of us. Many hours of preparation have been happening to ensure the leadership of the church and others are prepared to keep the church focused on the Lord and moving forward with a Kingdom mindset.

The first day of the sabbatical will be Sunday, July 25th and I will be back in the pulpit on Sunday, November 7th. We are looking forward to begin and to end the sabbatical time with two silent spiritual retreats where we can really focus on listening to God and what he wants to speak into us about our relationship with Him, our relationship with each other, and for his direction for our continued ministry at Newville.

During this time, we will be doing a little bit of travel. I am registered at the Billy Graham Training Center (The Cove), in North Carolina where I will attend a three-day seminar on "Teaching and Preaching God's Word: Next Steps to Becoming a High-Impact Communicator". This will be taught by Pastor Chip Ingram who hosts the Living On the Edge radio program. At the end of the sabbatical time, we will wrap it up with our annual trip to the Outer Banks.

We are looking to be spiritually fed as we have more down time to spend in the Word, read several books I've been wanting to read, and we will also attend a variety of churches for worship every Sunday morning.

We will certainly miss being with all of you during this time, but we know you will be well cared for and fed spiritually by various pastors and others from the church as they bring you the Word on Sunday mornings.

Be watching for more details to come in the next few weeks. We will be making every effort to keep you informed. As always, we are looking forward to serving you in the years to come. In closing, we share with you the same encouragement from the Apostle Paul who said, "I/we thank God every time I/we remember you. In all my/our prayers for all of you, I/we always pray with joy because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now, being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus."

You Are Loved, Live Loved,
Pastor Wayne and Elaine

WOMEN'S CARE MINISTRY

We are excited to welcome to our volunteer staff, Kathryn Griffith in the position of Women's Care Ministry.

Kathryn is in the process of earning her Ordination in the Churches of God, General Conference. Part of that process is to be assigned to oversee a ministry. To fulfill that requirement, Kathryn is beginning a support ministry for women in our church and community. She will provide emotional, spiritual and prayer support for ladies. Her desire is to come along side women to be an encouragement, to provide emotional support, to listen, to seek wisdom from God's Word, and to pray with them.

Through her educational journey, Kathryn holds a BA in Religious Studies; Christian Studies Emphasis with a Pastoral Studies Focus.

If you need a caring person with a listening ear, you are encouraged to reach out to Kathryn at 814-592-7860 or email griffith4x@gmail.com.

Congratulations to Pastor Heidi who graduated on May 15, 2021, from Liberty University. She completed the two-year program with the degree of "Master of Arts, Pastoral Counseling in Crisis Response and Trauma", graduating with high distinction. Congratulations on a job well done. May God bless you for your hard work and dedication in learning.

PRAYER BENCH AND FOUNTAIN

Have you noticed something new at the Connection Center entrance?

We are blessed to have a new bench and fountain donated to the church. It is a refreshing place to sit and relax as you listen to the flowing water, and it is a great place to sit to read and pray. The fountain serves as a reminder to us of John 7:37-38, "..... Jesus stood and said in a loud voice, "Let anyone who is thirsty come to me and drink. ³⁸ Whoever believes in me, as Scripture has said, rivers of living water will flow from within them."

The fountain, pavers, and landscaping was a generous donation given anonymously to the church. The family asked that an area be created to make those walking into the Connection Center would feel welcomed, find peace and beauty.

To enhance the fountain, the bench was donated by Louise Hoover giving glory to God and in loving memory of her husband, Sam. Over the years, they both have given many hours of service to the ministries of our church. Louise said, "I want this to be a place at the church where people can come to sit and pray or just have a conversation together!" Come early for church, or just stop by anytime to set a spell, relax, and pray! Then you will call on me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you. Jeremiah 29:12

The Shoebox Supply House in Shippensburg will tentatively be open the following dates in June and July from 9am -12 each day:
 June 1, 10, 15, 24, 29 and
 August 7, 12, 21, 26.

1. Pray for those going through chemo, radiation or other treatments, that they'll go into remission or be healed otherwise. Also, that they will have strength and a personal relationship with Christ to carry them through.
2. Praise God for the times you get to spend with your family. We often take them for granted. Don't wait until it's too late.
3. Pray that people will celebrate this weekend responsibly and peacefully, with no mishaps.
4. Praise God for the freedom we have. Take a moment to remember all those who have sacrificed time or their lives so the rest of us have these blessings. We need to never take that for granted.
5. Pray for safety as farmers are working in the fields, bailing hay, etc. Heat and heavy machinery don't always mix well.
6. Praise God for the Youth department/leaders of our church. Pray their strength and creativity will continue so the kids and teens will always want to come and interact, learning more about Jesus and the need for Him their life.
7. Pray for pregnant women dealing with nausea, especially with heat that they will start to feel better soon, enjoying the rest of their pregnancy, having a healthy baby.
8. Pray for those going into nursing homes or assisted living, etc. that the transition will be as smooth as possible and new friendships will be formed, to make this a happier life stage than is expected.
9. Pray that our church can use the fireworks display as a way to reach out to the community and spark some interest that might draw some people back on Sunday morning.
10. Praise God for all the men and boys of our church, that they will have a deeper desire for Jesus and a better understanding of His will for their life.
11. Praise God for the proof that Jesus is His Son. He is alive now and we can spend eternity with Him if we recognize Him as our Lord and follow His will.
12. Pray for our church council as they meet. Pray for patience, wisdom and guidance in all discussions.
13. Pray that with the heat, everyone will have plenty of water (don't forget pets) and be drinking it to avoid dehydration. If you have a chance, check in on your neighbors, and pray for them while you are at it.
14. It is not too early to start thinking about the Christmas Shoeboxes. Be praying for those who have received the boxes in the past as well as those who will be receiving the next ones. If God lays something special on your heart to add in, do it. Even if it makes no sense. He will see the intended person gets it. Don't forget to pray for all those who will be in contact with each box, in any way.
15. Pray for all who have been dealing with Bible School, as everyone is getting tired. Pray that all the energy spent will result in many recognizing Christ as their Savior or renewing their commitment.
16. Pray for those of our church who are on committees, that God gives them wisdom to see His leading and follow closely.
17. Pray for the Crisis Pregnancy centers who do their best to help women who think they have no choice in dealing with surprise babies on the way. Pray the centers will be able to show them there are other choices that will give life and not guilt or pain. If an abortion has already been done, pray the women will find Jesus and His forgiveness for the rest of their lives.
18. Pray for Pastor Wayne, Elaine and their family. Sometimes they just really need to be lifted up and know that we all care. Pray for the other pastors (and their families) of this church, too. They fill in so many other roles to keep things going.
19. Pray for all First Responders as they put themselves on the line. Pray for their safety, courage and good judgment when they are called out for the various situations. They never quite know what or who they will find. Pray the traumatic things they see/hear will be dealt with.
20. Praise God for all the women and girls in our church, for an increased hunger for Christ in their heart, letting Him shine through their lives for all to see.
21. Praise God for the ability to help others when the need arises. It's another way God works through you, if you let Him.
22. Pray for those who are getting married, that they will have the determination to make their marriage work and be blessed. Pray that God will be a part of their union. That is actually a good prayer for all married couples.
23. Pray for those who have been injured in wrecks or other kinds of accidents. So many lives can hang in the balance, or possibly a life of disabilities. Pray for patience and healing for a complete recovery.
24. There are so many blessings in all of our lives. Today would be a wonderful day to thank God for the special blessings He has given to you, specifically.
25. Pray for our country, that people will put aside their differences, and start working together to make this country an even better place to live. There is a lot of hatred and intolerance out there that needs to end NOW. Pray that people will come to their senses and listen to God for guidance, the whole way to the top leaders, starting with individual citizens.

David and I would like to thank everyone who made it possible for David to receive the prayer blanket. We love it!! Thank you all again and may God bless you all. David & Betsy Kessler

A BIG THANK-YOU goes out to Pastor Heidi who served as our Director of Children's Ministries since September 14, 2016. She stepped down from her leadership role with our children to pursue other ministry opportunities, and at the present time, Katie Kane will continue as our interim director.

Pastor Heidi, along with the help of her faithful husband Alan, the support of her children, Levi and Kyrie, and the help of many volunteers, did a wonderful job in this valuable ministry of our church. Pastor Heidi and Alan are looking forward to continuing to help in our children's ministries as she is also seeking the Lord's direction in using her new degree in pastoral counseling. We can't thank you enough for all you have done and will continue to do to teach the love of Jesus to others in our church and community.

Prayer Calendar

26. Pray for the mission teams and others who are working in Haiti, the Southeast or other areas. There is a lot of "need" and it's HOT there. Pray for witnessing opportunities too, and open hearts for those who hear.
27. Praise God for creating you with a specific purpose in mind. In His, you have infinite value. How will you search out and fulfill that purpose?
28. Pray for our troops and their families. Being separated has to be tough. Pray for safety for all and that they'll be reunited soon. Pray for those who are deployed, that they will not be put in danger.
29. Praise God that He give us everything that we need to live for Him All we need to do is ask.
30. Pray for those who are feeling weak from disease or depression, that they will find relief and help from God.
31. Pray for those who are fighting addictions, from any substance that is detrimental to good health. There are so many people dying from overdoses and side effects. While we may wonder why people do drugs, each one is loved by someone. Pray they will have their eyes opened to what they are doing to themselves and others, and turn to Christ for help.
